

What is a Service Agreement?

	This document tells you what a Service Agreement is and why you need one .
	A Service Agreement is a document . It is an agreement between you and your service provider . The service provider is the person or organisation that provides you with supports (like).
	When you agree on the services you want from the Provider, it is written down in the Service Agreement.
	The Service Agreement says that you and your Provider agree to the services they will provide .
	To show that you agree, you sign the Service Agreement. We (the Provider) will also sign the agreement.
	The Service Agreement helps to make sure you receive the services that are right for you .
	Your Service Agreement is helpful because it provides everything agreed to in writing .
	If you need help to enter into a Service Agreement, you can ask a trusted person to support you . A trusted person might be a family member, your carer, a friend or an independent advocate .
	Your trusted person (advocate) can speak on your behalf .
	Your trusted person (advocate) can sign your Service Agreement for you (but only if you say that is okay).
	What information should be in a Service Agreement?
	We will meet with you and ask you to talk to us about the support you want.

What is a Service Agreement?

	We want you to tell us: • What type of supports you need • How you want your supports provided • The type of support worker you want to work with • When you need supports • how long you will need the supports.
	We will talk to you about: • The supports we can provide • Your rights and responsibilities • Our responsibilities • Anything special that we must consider.
	It is a good idea to bring a copy of your NDIS Plan to your Service Agreement meetings. (If you want, we can put a copy of your plan in your agreement.)
	Once we both have agreed on supports and costs, we will write the Service Agreement. We will then provide two copies for you to read and sign.
	The Service Agreement will include what is expected from you and us (our responsibilities).
	We will explain our responsibilities to you. We will explain your responsibilities which you must meet.
	The Service Agreement will include information about costs. It will include how much our service will cost you.
	When do you sign the Service Agreement?
	After you, or your trusted person, has read the Service Agreement.
	After you or your trusted person have had your say and are happy that the Service Agreement meets your needs.
	You only sign the Service Agreement if you agree with what is written in it. There will be two copies to sign (one for you and one for us).
